

ValleyStone Credit Union Privacy Policy

ValleyStone Credit Union (VSCU) collects nonpublic information about its members from information received on applications and other forms, as well as transactions with others and us.

We do not disclose any nonpublic information about you to anyone, except as permitted by law. We will not sell, transfer, or disclose nonpublic information provided by members, neither will we use information provided for any purpose other than that for which it was provided.

If you decide to terminate your membership or you become an inactive member, we will continue to adhere to the privacy policies and practices as described in this notice.

ValleyStone Credit Union restricts access to your personal nonpublic information and account information to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information.
